Past success, present prosperity and future promise are three most prominent object lessons to be derived from the annual statement of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, published today, for the business of the year just ended. Past success in that every referm which the Equitable has introduced has been an actual one, correcting abuses which had crept into the conduct of the business, and warranted as shown by their effect on the business, and in that through these reforms the society has been enabled to reach a position among the companies surpassed by none, and equaled by few. In the short space of forty-two years, the youngest of the large companies has accomplished rethe large companies has accomplished re-sults far beyond those ever accomplished by any other company in a similar period of time. For the figures justifying these statements the reader is referred to the advertisement of the company in an-

Foreign Affairs.

The German foreign office confirmed a story printed in a Berlin paper to the effect that England wanted to help Spain in the American war; this statement was indignantly denied in London. Mr. Balfour announced in the house of commons that copies of the correspondence between the Netherlands and Great Britain had been forwarded to the Boer leaders in the field through Gen. Kitchener. Lord Salisbury, in a speech in London, said the Irish, as well as the Boers, were a menace to the British as the design of the British war office stated that the total loss in South Africa had been 25,-16 305 men, while the casualties were 5,240 officers and 100,701 men. Lord Kitchener reported the capture of the last gun Gen. De Wet had and the killing of Field Cornet Wessels, one of his principal lleutenants. The deceased wife's sister bill made its fourteenth appearance in parliament. Many lives were lost in the terrific storms that prevalled during the week off the British coast, the French ship Chanaral cap-sizing and drowning twenty-one of her crew. Heavy storms in northern Italy caused severe floods, forty lives being lost and one entire village wiped out. The brother-in-law of the Sultan of Turkey was condemned to death; the former was re-ported safe in Paris and the Turkish gov-ernment unable to secure his extradition. Archduke Leopold and Archduchess Blanche of Austria made a trip of 200 miles in a balloon. An avalanche buried the vil-lage of Bleiberg in Austria, killing a num-ber of persons. A Macedonian school teacher assassinated M. Kamtcheff, the Bulgarian minister of public instruction. Hadda Mullah, who figured prominently in the last uprising in Afghanistan, and who is reported to have great weight with the ameer, was reported to be preaching a holy war in that country. Salvador, Honduras, Nicaragua and Costa Rica signed a treaty of arbitration. J. Santos Zelaya was inaugurated as President of Nicaragua for his third term. One hundred and six men were killed in a mine explosion at Hondo, Mexico. Among those who died was Thos. Sidney Cooper, a noted artist, at Vernon Holme, Harbledown, the spot near Can-terbury immortalized by Chaucer.

In the District.

The District Commissioners forwarded a favorable report to the Senate District committee on the bill to remove snow and ice from the sidewalks and for other purposes; a number of amendments were added to the bill. The Commissioners appointed O. L. Ingalls of the engineer department, inspector of plumbing. The health officer submit-ted a favorable report to the Commissioners on the Senate bill to regulate the pro-duction and sale of milk in the District; the health officer also submitted a report on the Senate bill for the promotion of ecration of graves in the District. sealer of weights and measures submit-ted a bill to the Commissioners to amend the laws relating to his office. John C. Dancy was sworn in as recorder of deeds. It was announced that another effort will be made during the present session of Congress to secure the retrocession of that part of Virginia, which was formerly included in the District, to be reincorporated as part of the District. An amendment to the legislative appropriation bill was adopt-ed in the House providing that no public building or its approaches, with the exception of the Capitol and the White House, shall be used in connection with any inaugural ceremonies. The nomination of Thomas H. Anderson, as associate justice of the District Supreme Court, was con-firmed by the Senate. The plumbing board which served between 1838 and 1838 applied for $10,650 in pay. The annual reports of the Metropolitan, City and Suburban, Co-lumbia, Washington and Great Falls, Brightwood and Anacostia and Potomac River Railway Companies were submitted to the House of Representatives; as the result of action taken at a meeting of the board of directors of the Metropolitan and Columbia Street Railway Companies those corporations went out of existence, the properties being merged with the Washington and Great Falls Company under the new name of the Washington Railway and Electric Company. The property owned by the Foundry Methodist, Episcopal Church, at the corner of 14th and G streets northwest, was sold to Thomas F. Walsh for $200,000; the latter stated his intention of erecting an office building on the site. The erecting an office building on the site. Recommends That No Action Be Taken C. B. Hunt, the computing engineer, has submitted a report to the District Commissioners in regard to the proposed grading of certain spaces in Providence street, Brookland, as requested by Dr. Thomas Y. Hull. The engineer recommends that no action be taken at this time, as no nui-sance exists, and there are no funds known to the office that are available for the work of filling the street simply to prevent the occurrence of a nuisance. He says advantage will, of course, be taken of any opportunity that may arise to remedy these conditions as an incident to the prosecution of other work that may have to be done
